NEVADA BOY IS READY FOR THE FRONT

J. A. Sellstrom of Tonopah has received from L. G. Faine, formerly of Reno, an interesting letter from "somewhere in France." Mr. Faine was state distributor for Firestone tires. His headquarters were in Reno, but he paid frequent visits to Tonopah. The letter was censored as to locations, but otherwise passed as it was written. It follows:

Only a line, as that is all the censor permits, even though we argue that we must tell our friends what is going on over here.

The past few weeks have been spent at ———. It seems that we shall have to get 'em from the trenches and then drive to the hospitals behind the lines. For any one liking excitement and desiring to improve their quickness of eye by dodging shells and shrapnel, I will recommend this work most heartily.

I have wondered many times lately how you are getting on with the press and our truck tires. Over here about all I see in the way of tires are Firestones on the Packards and Pierce-Arrows and Fords, with Clermont (French) on all French trucks.

You may wonder why I don't forget the old game so long as I am in a new one, but I know now that it is impossible and that if I ever get out of this I will start for myself in the East.

Coming over we had our most exciting time, as we had to lick a few of "Bill's" pets. Supposedly official reports have it that we got three of them without losing a man.

Yesterday a Zeppelin sailed over and at first we thought it was a German, but it turned out to be French—much to the joy of the crowd of us.

Nevada is a good state and you have lived in it a good while, but I don't think that it compares with France for scenery. Never have I seen anything like this. Last Sunday some of us got off and took a side trip to a nearby town for the day. In this particular town they have one of the oldest cathedrals in the country. It was started in 1200 A. D. and finished a couple of hundred years later.

For architecture it has anything I have ever seen beaten a mile. And in the same town there was an old castle of the former reigning duke, built about 600 years ago and now being used for French soldiers as a barracks. Both these buildings are of solid granite and marble carved to fit perfectly. These things seem all the more wonderful because I come from the West, where anything sixty years old is a curiosity.

Within a few days we shall get into the thick of it, so I may not have a chance to write again. If not, you will know that even in France you and Mr. Stewart and the West End Consolidated are not forgotten. Very sincerely yours,

L. G. FAINE.

COAL SHORTAGE IS PROMISED RELIEF

RAILROAD MAN TELLS WHY THE SUPPLY WAS LESS THAN DEMAND.

M. A. Hood, local agent for the Las Vegas & Tonopah railway, hearing many complaints along the line of his road regarding non-arrival of coal, took the matter up with C. E. Redman, the general agent of the company at Goldfield, and received reply to the effect that everything possible was being done to make quick delivery as soon as coal consignments reached the line.

Mr. Redman ascribed the coal shortage largely to washouts occurring on the line of the D. & R. G., which prevented the usual amount of coal from being shipped from Colorado mines and from those in Utah. He said that the Salt Lake route had received 1600 new steel cars, which have been placed in the vicinity of the mines to be used in transporting coal as rapidly as it can be taken out.

MOOSE! MOOSE! MOOSE!

All members of Tonopah lodge No. 974, L. O. O. M., are requested to attend the initiation and smoker Thursday evening, October 25. As October 27th is Mooseheart day, we are to exemplify the ideas which give Mooseheart its character and title. All visiting brothers are cordially invited.

A WORK OF MERCY TO BE UNDERTAKEN

MAKING OF SURGICAL DRESSINGS TO BE CARRIED ON IN TONOPAH.

Tomorrow (Friday) morning at the Red Cross rooms, 130 South Main street, will be started that interesting and merciful work, the making of surgical dressings. Many people have registered, and it is hoped and expected that many more will avail themselves of the privilege of learning such valuable work under the directions of a member of the medical profession and trained nurses, Dr. de Chino, Mrs. Palling and Miss Winro.

It has erroneously been stated that to do any of the work in the Red Cross rooms it is necessary to be a member of that organization. Every woman and every child who is anxious to help in the caring for soldiers and sailors is welcome to attend and do the work they best can do. Saturday morning it is asked that the school girls come, the larger ones to learn to make the bandages, etc., the younger ones to clip for the surgical pillows. Remember that these pillows can be made by children entirely. Send them. A few hours taken from their play now may mean that for all time these children and their children will have a free country in which to play.

BOYS EARN MONEY TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

While there are a number of pupils in the Tonopah schools who are the proud owners of Liberty Bonds, it is worth noting that at least four boys have purchased these bonds out of money that they have earned—every cent—themselves, by working before and after school and on Saturdays and holidays. They have done this without losing time at school and without detriment to their school work. These are boys of whom to be proud and Tonopah is proud of them. If the grown-ups would all do half as well in proportion Tonopah would lead the country in per capita subscriptions.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE.

The fire department was called out this morning at 6:50 o'clock by an alarm from the Grand hotel. The loss was nominal. A guest, enjoying an early morning cigarette, set fire to the bedding in his room.

YAMA YAMA DANCE SET BY TONOPAH ELKS LODGE

The B. P. O. E. will give a yama yama party on Halloween at Elka hall, the night of October 31. This will constitute the second big event of the social season of the brotherhood. There will be an excellent orchestra and dancing will be enjoyed on the best floor in the state. Elks' hospitality will permeate everything. New ideas will be introduced in the decorative effects and there will be a variety and change given to the yama yama costumes. Halloween favors for the ladies have been ordered for the occasion and a good old-time Halloween spread will be found most appetizing.

AMUSEMENTS

WM. S. (BILL) HART AT THE BUTLER.

A furious encounter with knives and sixshooters, during which William S. Hart fights savagely against two opponents, is one of the stirring scenes of "The Square Deal Man," which will be exhibited at the Butler today. As Jack o' Diamonds, a gambler, Hart in this play escapes from two Mexicans, who had planned to kill him, and succeeds in returning to the hacienda to rescue its mistress, a young girl whom he knows to be in danger of the Mexicans' attack. It is during this rescuing attempt that Hart clashes with the band of "greasers." "The Square Deal Man" is a drama of the western plains. Hart, as the square-jawed western gambler, displays that virility and quiet forcefulness for which his work is distinctive. While the role is not that of the murderous gun fighter, it is a characterization perfectly suited to the star. He is again the stern-visaged person who finds the six-shooter a solution to all difficulties. It is a picture that will be a treat to any audience. In addition to the feature, a Triangle comedy, "Tunor of Notes," will be shown.

Tomorrow, however, is the big day—a double bill—two distinct features—an eight-reel program. The picture that you have been waiting for has at last arrived—"The Fighting Trail"—most wonderful picture of the great outdoors ever screened. The complete story will be published in The Bonanza every Wednesday and the pictures will be shown every Friday. Read the story—then see the picture. The other feature is Charles Ray of "Clodhopper" fame (shown here recently) in "The Pinch Hitter," a baseball comedy drama that is simply a scream. If business interferes with your seeing this picture, quit the business, for the picture you must see!

Five cash prizes will be given at the Halloween masquerade ball in the Airdome: Best-dressed lady, best-dressed gentleman, most original character, best-sustained lady's character and best-sustained gentleman's character.
